

The Psychological Medicine Clinical Care Unit Research Committee

proudly presents a

“Spotlight on WA Perinatal Mental Health Research”

‘The WA Mother Baby Unit: Providing specialist services for mothers and families living with severe mental illness’

Dr Phillipa Brown

‘A clinical information sheet for women experiencing repetitive ego-dystonic thoughts of harming their baby: Development and evaluation’

Elizabeth Oxnam & Michelle Wettinger

‘Healthy Parents, Healthy Minds: Building a perinatal mental health service model with a WA Aboriginal community’

Dr Janette Brooks

Please join the Psychological Medicine Clinical Care Unit Research Committee at the first in a series of free presentations aiming to showcase current research undertaken in the fields of perinatal, infant, child and adolescent mental health.

Venue: Agnes Walsh House, King Edward Memorial Hospital (see attached map)

Date: Wednesday, 26 May 2010; 12.00 – 1.00pm (BYO Lunch)

RSVP: Diane.Smith@health.wa.gov.au by Monday 17th May 2010

King Edward Memorial Hospital

